

Dedicated Covid Health Center (DCHC) at Bhausahab Mulak Ayurved Mahavidyalaya and Hospital, Nandanwan Nagpur

The mayor Dayashankar Tiwari and his team had earlier visited Bhausahab Mulak Ayurvedic Hospital and Research Center KDK College Campus, Nandanvan Nagpur. He directed the corporation to set up an oxygen line to start a 100-bed covid hospital in this hospital.

He also directed the administration to arrange 100 oxygen beds in the Mulak Ayurvedic college and hospital. The mayor said that in the next ten days, efforts will be made to complete all these arrangements. Municipal Commissioner Radhakrishnan B has also supported his efforts.

During visit to the college, along with the Mayor, Chairman of the Medical Services and Health Committee, Mahesh Mahajan, Women and Child Welfare Committee

Chairperson Divya Dhurde, Principal of the College Dr. Meena Alnewar, RMO Dr. Sangeeta Bhagadkar, Coordinator Dr. Sharad Tripathi, Deputy Commissioner (Revenue) Milind Meshram, Zonal Medical Health Officer Dr. Sunil Kamble among others were present.

Looping